Help shape the future of Ontario's transportation network

Join the Ministry of Transportation's Highway Transfer Secretariat and play a leading role in a significant transformation of provincial and municipal highway responsibilities. Your work will support the transfer of Toronto's Gardiner Expressway and Don Valley Parkway to provincial ownership in fall 2027 and advance planning for the potential upload of Ottawa Road 174.

You will lead complex, high-profile projects, build strong partnerships across governments, and help shape the decisions needed to deliver these major commitments. This is an opportunity to solve challenging problems and make a lasting impact on how people and goods move across Ontario.
